Here at the Color My Poetry, Color it Mine, International Poetic Expressions Convention, we have added a extra feature for our convention. We will be allowing outside Artists, Painters, and other vendors in the artistic world to come and sell their work for the price of only $300 for this three day event. This price does not include entry to the poetry contest or any of the banquets, entertainment, or into any of the other functions that we will be having for the participating Poets or their guest. The $300 will be for table space only to promote and sell their work (s). There is a limited vendor space of 35 only, and the first 35 vendors to send their check or money order or pay online to Semaj Publications of Denver/Vendor Space will be the only ones allowed, so we can have room for our participating Poets who wish to sell promote their work (s). Any vendor who wishes to attend all of the functions and sell their work (s) will have to pay the full price of $600. No Exceptions!! There will be special identification badges issued to all participants, convention volunteer, and vendors to identify their entry into the convention functions or into the private areas reserved by the convention committee members. All participants of the convention will be provided free hotel transportation to and from Denver International Airport. Please call 1-800-222-8733 upon arrival.
